Chennai to host India's biggest pageant for men

'Rubaru Mr. India' this October

Chennai, Aug 13: The city of Chennai has been chosen to host India's biggest pageant for men, 'Rubaru Mr. India' in the month of October. The national finals of the prestigious competition will take place on October 5, 2022, at the hotel Ceramic Plaza, Chennai Adyar Park.

Chennai was announced as the host city for this year's Rubaru Mr. India competition by the vice-president of the Rubaru Mr. India organization, Pankaj Kherwani, in the press conference held on August 12 at Ceramic Plaza Adyar Park.

The prestigious event will be graced with hands with Jineshwar Intra Venkatesh, Ltd., represented by its director, Pramod Choudhary. The organization will be the event's associate and investment partner. SNT will be the event's travel partner and will take care of all the transportation and travel arrangements of the competition. One of the most well-established social media marketing firms, Social Edge will be the competition's event and marketing partner. Both the enterprises - Social Edge and SNT are owned by Sachin Saboona.

The event will also be graced by some of the finest and most influential personalities in the fashion and pageant industry. Celebrity choreographer based in Tamil Nadu, Kamal Kumar will be the show director for the event and one of the foremost fashion photographers in the world, Amit Khanna based in Mumbai will travel to Chennai as the commercial official photographer. That is, ace fashion designer, Vishal Thawani from Mumbai will showcase his exquisite collection at the fashion runway during the glitzy evening of the competition.

The event will be covered by the world's biggest international pageant media house, Miss Universe (based in the Philippines) and India's very first all-male pageant magazine, Imaginity will be the official magazine partner for the competition. Famous online media enterprise, Galafra.com will be the online media partner of the event and Asiatel News will be the media and news partner for the competition. Along with that, international fashion designer, Julian Pegoragno from the Philippines will also travel to India as the special guest for the competition. Designer Diby Martin Arjuna who was awarded as the 'Best Couture Designer' in India Kids Fashion Week will also be present at the event. At the event, international swimwear brand, Pegaro Swim will be officially introduced in India via the Rubaru Mr. India competition. For this year's edition, the Rubaru Mr. India competition will be joining hands with the Sahabean NGO to work for various social causes.
